

TWO
WENTWORTH

Specialist Barristers' Chambers. Since 1957.

PRESS RELEASE

Level 2, 180 Phillip St
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

Tel +61 2 9232 4466

Fax +61 2 9223 4204

clerk@twowentworth.com.au

Wednesday, 11 June 2025

-For Immediate Release-

Two Wentworth welcomes a new Member and celebrates first Reader Bursary Recipient

Two Wentworth secures new senior Floor member, Paul Bolster, formerly of 8 Wentworth, who joined the Floor on 19 May 2025.

Admitted to the Bar in 1990, Bolster has considerable experience advising clients in commercial disputes, succession, criminal law and administrative law. Apart from his substantive senior junior practice, Bolster is regarded for his prowess in public inquiries and in particular his role as one of the counsel assisting throughout the Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety between 2019 - 2021.

Reno Gambi, Head of Chambers at Two Wentworth says:

"We are delighted Paul has decided to join the Floor as a Senior Junior. He brings a wealth of expertise to the Floor and a busy practice."

Paul Bolster says:

"Two Wentworth is a nice fit for my practice. It has a solid reputation as a niche Succession and Common Law Floor. A number of the Floor members are longtime peers, and I plan to add to the ranks of Mediators on the floor, in the near future."

TWO
WENTWORTH

Specialist Barristers' Chambers. Since 1957.

On Thursday, 5 June 2025, the Floor also celebrated the arrival of Reader, Jordan Lee. Lee was formerly a solicitor in HWL Ebsworth's Succession team led by Partner, Guy Moloney. Lee is the first recipient of the late Michael Finnane KC's Bursary, which sees him receive a $7,500k bursary on joining the Floor. The Floor is passionate about this initiative in its bid to cultivate talent, promote diversity and encourage solicitors / students of any socio-economic pathway to consider joining the Floor.

Reno Gambi, Head of Chambers at Two Wentworth says:

"We were excited for Jordan to receive the Floor's first Reader Bursary. It's a novel initiative and an ideal way for established members to give back to the legal community and encourage talent to the Floor."

Jordan Lee says:

"I'm delighted to develop my career at Two Wentworth. I previously briefed and ran matters with members of the Floor. I am looking forward to honing my expertise on Two Wentworth, which has been very supportive and is committed to ensuring I benefit from the opportunities I am offered."

-Ends-

About Two Wentworth Chambers

Two Wentworth is a leading specialist set of barristers' chambers in Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. The Floor comprises of 23 barristers, and a Reader, including a senior counsel. Our barristers are highly experienced in providing expert legal services in all Australian courts and tribunals across a diverse range of practice areas including a focus on common law, succession law and other general expertise. Many of our barristers are experienced alternate dispute resolution practitioners, including accredited mediators, arbitrators and expert determiners. Our barristers have represented clients in landmark decisions, and current and former members of Two Wentworth have taken judicial appointments in the Federal Court of Australia, and the Supreme and District Courts of New South Wales.

For any questions regarding this press release or Paul Bolster or Jordan Lee, please contact our Floor clerk, Briget Harrison – details below.

Contact Details

Level 2, 180 Phillip St
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

Tel +61 2 9232 4466

Fax +61 2 9223 4204

clerk@twowentworth.com.au

<https://twowentworth.com.au/>

Paul Bolster

Barrister
Two Wentworth Chambers

Reno Gambi

Head of Chambers
Two Wentworth Chambers

Jordan Lee

Reader
Two Wentworth Chambers